Tip-toeing, they walked towards the terrifying door. First in line was Bella, the smallest of them all. She didn't like children calling her over and over. She got angry easily. She had dark curly hair and deep blue eyes.

In an instant Bella turned to Charlie and explained what was happening. "We are going in that room and killing that vampire." "BBB I am scared Don't be silly open the door," replied Bella. "In fact no one wanted to do it. The idea was in the place. The defenders knew what they had to do. Not everyone was entirely sure. It was all down to them now."

Hart being as fast as lightning out of Control Room, the warriors crept to the blood-soaked room. It took a brief second or two for their eyes to adjust to the mid night darkness. The demon's bed lay in front of them as high as a mountain. The blood hovering Beast lay inside. Bella's torch flickered on and their shadows raced across the room. It was scary, scary, scary. But they were still terrified.

In an instant Bella sprinted over to Charlie nervously when a bloodsucking vampire appeared. Bella held a thick rusty stick. Bella walked slowly towards the vampire nervously. Bella said "I can't do it Charlie will you do it?" "BBB I am scared you do it instead." "OK I will do it." So Bella held the the stake as high as most everest and throw it at the mean horrible vampire at last silent's we killed the vampire.
